ABSTRACT

Character is one of the important elements in fiction. The topic which is discussed in this paper is the presentation of main characters’ morality in Jodi Picoult’s novel, My Sister’s Keeper. Though the character, the reader could see the great moral value in the novel; it prove that characters’ and morality is related. The main characters’ morality can be seen through their attitudes when they deal with their problems in their life. At least there are seven main characters’ in this novel; but at this chance the author only discussed five dominant main characters’ in this novel. The aim of this study is to explain the main characters’ morality in Jodi Picoult’s novel. Since the analysis is internal structure of the literary work, the method applied in it known as intrinsic method of analysis.
