ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I would like to thank Jesus Christ for His eternal blessings and love that I can accomplish this thesis. I knew You picked me and You had decided where You wanted to bring me that I have no fear about what is going to happen next.

I would like to thank the dean of Faculty of Letters, Dr. Drs. Syahron Lubis, M.A, the head of English Department, Dr. Drs. Muhizar Muchtar, M.S, the secretary of English Department, Dr. Dra. Nurlela, M.Hum, and all the lecturers that have given me such useful knowledge during my years of study. I, along with this thesis, am nothing and hopeless without your guidance.

I also would like to dedicate my gratefulness to Dra. Martha Pardede, M.S, my supervisor, and to Dra. Swesana Mardia Lubis, M.Hum, my co-supervisor, for uncountable help, guidance and support that I can do this thesis well. May God bless you all because this world still needs the genius like both of you.

My gratitude for my beloved parents, dr. Toga Tambunan and Tetty Hutabarat for so much love and care. I am sorry if I cannot be what you wish, but I think being in literature gives me deeper sense of humanity better than just being a doctor. I hope I can cure your broken hearts by being what I am right now. For my brother and sisters, I would always try to be a better sibling for you. Thanks to Rotua Tambunan for all the patience in nurturing the miserable me.

Thanks to Bang Am for so much help in registration and administration and to all my classmates for such awesome years (am really gonna miss you all, seriously!) To my beloved best friends during college (Maya, Liana, Dewi, Eva, Evy, Vita, Sabeth, Rinandes, Citra, Tere, Mita, Abrina, Bania) and to my jumpin’- goin’-crazy mate, Nurianti, thank you for teaching me various sides and stories of this life, for what we’ve shared in these years, and also to the other d’SanJoNes members (Santi, Joan, Nanes) for all indeed-brief-but-precious moments that we can only spend once or twice a year after senior graduation. Your supports have been the most valuable things in my life.

Thanks to my seniors in batch 2006 (K’ Yosi, K’ Miss, K’ Deb) and all juniors in batch 2008-2010, and to all the names I can’t mention that have given much contribution in the accomplishment of this thesis.

May God bless us all, forever and ever.
