1. INTRODUCTION

1.1 Background of study

Novel is a literary work which is the most popular in the world. This literary work is widely spread because it can influence people mind. As reading resource, novel can be devided into two; as a serious work and as a entertainment work. These two divisions could be right but still need another argument. A serious novel not just regarded as a beautiful, attractive and entertaining work but it should be more than that. Besides, a serious novel should give satisfaction to its readers. On the other hand, an entertainment novel is read only for casual interest, and the reader feels relaxed in finishing the whole story.

Novel has two functions; as a social function and personal function. A serious novel is said as social function because it can educate people through it, but an entertainment novel doesn’t care about education interest. It just bring the reader to finish it as soon as possible but get nothing.

Novel “Dewey” was written by Vicky Myron. This novel was taken from true story telling about a street kitten in winter 1998. Someone threwed it into the box return at Public Library Spencer, Iowa, America. It was found by a library Director, Vicky Myron.
The writer chose the novel “Dewey” because she was interested in the story of the novel itself. At the beginning the novel told about how Dewey touch Vicky’s life, and then it made the relation between Vicky and her daughter get closer. Besides, it could make the relation among Spencer’s librarian more better. Finally, positive impact of Dewey spread widely. Dewey’s good attitude to the library’s visitors made it the most beloved cat. In addition, this novel also invited the readers to think in positive way in solving human problem.

1.2 The Objective of Study

In this paper, the writer wants to give the meaning of fable, the analysis of part of the intrinsic element and to describe the part characters of the story.

1.3 The Scope of Writing

In fact, there are so many aspects can be seen in the novel, those are interesting to be studied. Therefore, the scope of writing is focused only on the Fabel analysis in Vicky Myron’s Novel.

Basically, the paper consists of five chapters. The first chapter deals with the introduction. The second one is concerned with a summary of the novel, the third one is concerned with the review of related literature in novel story, the four one is concerned with the fabel analysis of the novel and the last chapter discusses the conclusions and suggestions.
1.4 The Method of Writing

In writing this paper, the writer has applied one method, which is known as the library research. It means that the writer doesn’t use informants as the resources of the required data, but she collects data from written text, and the main resources of the required data which deal with, the fable analysis is taken from Vicky Myron’s Novel. Finally, the writer also used the novel as an additional source of the analysis. To get more information about this novel and the author, the writer searches in internet as well.