ABSTRAK
Aek Sipitu Dai is one of historical places in Samosir Island. Aek Sipitu Dai means seven tastes of water from seven springs which have been joined in one place. There are seven uses and meanings this water. Seven is the magic number for Batak. Aek Sipitu Dai is located in Limbong, Sianjurmula-mula. The Batak tribe believe that Sianjurmula-mula is the first place occupied by The King of Batak. Aek Sipitu Dai is made by Langgat Limbong, descendant of The King of Batak. Aek Sipitu Dai has three values: Material Value, Vital Value, Spiritual Value. Aek Sipitu Dai has the own story about the meeting of Si Boru Pareme and Si Raja Lontung. Then they got married and had seven children.
