SUMMARY OF EACH FAIRYTALE

1. Goby Goblin

Once, there was a goblin named goby. He lived in the southern part of goblindom with his parents and the other goblins.

He felt that he was neither handsome nor strong. He was rather clumsy and definitely not smart.

There, he saw a commotion. The palace guard had come with an important announcement from the king of goblin.

The king asked his people in the southern part to lend their money in this time of need. The money would be repaid soon.

Goby went home, broke his piggy bank and went to the money collection station. Goby put 2 copper coins inside.

It was time to return the money that the king borrowed six months earlier. A counter was quickly set up and the goblins started lining up to get their money back. The king was came!

The king said “first of all, there was no drought in the northern region, “

“The money lending and borrowing was just a test to find the most honest goblin of all, “ he continued.

“I know that goblins are supposed to be mischievous and tricky. It’s in our blood. But I have here, the name of a goblin, who is honest to his heart. Goby !” Goby was surprised to hear his name called by the king. The other goblins had asked for more money than they had actually lent.

The king invited goby to stay in his palace. He would be given the best education in order to be the king’s advisor when he grew up. And goby finally knew that he was very special.

2. Tiny Fairy

Once lived fairy named Fila. Fila was not an ordinary fairy. She was born with a pair of small wings which are too small to be used a fly.

she was not accepted at the flying school . the school only accept students who meet our requirements,” said the teacher. Then she applied to become a cleaning staff at the school. So everyday, when the young fairies were studying the theory of flying in the class, Fila would clean the class windows. ” I told you not to bother trying!”said the teacher. Fila was sad. But she was determined to fly. So she woke up early in the morning to practice. She practiced day and night. Practically she used up all her free time to practice. When the other fairies were able to fly as high as the bushes, she was still not able to fly. But she persevered.

When the other fairies were able to fly as high as the tree, she was finally able to fly. She only flew as high as the grass. Her teacher and the other fairies underestimated her small wings. Until one day… a young fairy who was not good at flying fell into a deep hole. The hole was not only deep, it was small and narrow.
Fila jumped in without any hesitation. In a few seconds, she managed to fly the young fairy out of the hole. Her small wings worked in a narrow hole. Nobody looked down on her anymore.

3. Liliputs and Queen fairy

Once there was a liliput named Lilo. He, his wife and his ten sons lived in the Fairytale Land. Lilo didn’t like being a liliput. He always complained.

When he meet Ogre, he suggest him to see queen fairy and ask.

The next day, Lilo decided to visit queen fairy and state his problem. “All right,” said queen fairy, “I will fulfill your request. When you arrive home, you will see that everything will be as you wish for!”

Lilo ran home and noticed that his farm had really grown in size. It was so big, even bigger than Gino’s farm. “Yippee!” he shouted happily.

Lilo started to work at his farm. But soon he got so tired and he hadn’t even plowed a tenth of it.

Lilo broke into tears. “I want my farm back. I don’t need these wings. I want my wife and her turnips back. I also want my sons back!” he shouted. “Do you really mean it?” asked Queen Fairy who suddenly appeared.

Yes, please! I promise I will always be grateful for what I already have!” Lilo said. Queen Fairy’s waved her wand once, and everything went back to normal.
