ABSTRACT

The title of this paper is "Nilai-Nilai Kepemimpinan dalam Taoisme : Studi Kasus Masyarakat Tionghoa di Medan". Taoism is a school of philosophy that originated in China and was pioneered by Lao Tzu. One of his teaching is leadership values. Nowadays, the study of leadership is always evolving and changing from time to time in line with advances of technology and information as well as human needs. Therefore, the writer wanted to see whether the values of leadership in Taoism is still relevant or useful to the leaders of today. The writer use descriptive qualitative method as a research method. Data sources obtained through the library research by books and field research by the form of interviews with informants. As the conclusion, writer found that the values of leadership in Taoism is still relevant or useful to the leaders of today, when applied in life.

Key Words : Chinese Philosophy, Taoism Teachings, Leadership on Taoism