ABSTRACT

History of Tobacco Deli, is one of the tourist areas of the historic city of Medan, by lifting the back story that had grown along the city of Medan. Ex Ripening building. PTPN II field, is one of the historic buildings that are Existing location, the building was revitalized again, and used as Museum Tobacco Deli, to revive the historical value of this building. In addition to the Museum building, there are also design other building functions, one of which is the Community Center of Art which can be used by the local community, to learn and produce goods handicraft and other art. The design of the area and also functions using a method that consists of problem approaches, assumptions and limits the scope and design. After that the next stage of analyzing the region such as the analysis of view, circulation, noise and others who gave birth to the concept of the design so that the onset of the final design Design Museum and Community Center Deli Tobacco. Application of Contextual theme of harmony and Style Architecture Artdeco each building function of this region, is expected to improve and revive the region, for improving the economy, education and tourism industry in the city of Medan.

Keywords: Travel, History, Tobacco, Artdeco, Contextual