Dear Dr. Kamal Basri Shogar,

Thank you for publishing with Cancer Treatment and Research Communications. We are so pleased to inform you that the proof for your upcoming publication is ready. You are welcome to review and submit corrections directly on-screen using the link below. You will find instructions on the start page on how to make corrections.

Many of our authors benefit from faster publication of their article by submitting their corrections within 48 hours.

Here are a few points to note when submitting your corrections:

- Please check that you are satisfied with the accuracy of the copy-editing and the completeness and correctness of the text, tables and figures. To assist you with this, copy-editing changes have been highlighted. You can save and return to your article at any time during the correction process. It is crucial that you make all corrections in the online proofing tool before submitting because once you click submit, you can no longer make further corrections.
- Any corrections requested after this time may not be possible or may require the publishing of a corrigendum pending Editor approval.
- Your article will have been typeset according to the journal style, and so it may not be possible for your article to have a layout that does not conform to the journal style.

We aim for your finalized article to appear online within a week of receiving your corrections.
